

Potential Grizzlies

A President who...

Nominates an Attorney General who has been shown to be a bigot.

- ...responsible for prosecuting hate crimes
- ...enforcing the right for all people to vote
- ...upholding justice for all
as long as they're white.

Sends to the Senate an EPA chief

- ...who has sued the EPA
- ...and questions climate science
- ...a lawyer devoted to his own gain
at the price of the planet.

Puts forth a National Security Advisor

- ...who respects Putin, a tyrant.
- ...questions the Two-State solution
the only chance for Israel to continue it's existence long-term.
- ...feeds the President what he wants the hear even if it's not the truth.

Demands confirmation at Energy

- ...a dope who can't remember that he wants to dismantle Energy
- ...hands on the trigger of total existence of our species
- ...is tasked to drill, baby, drill
to sail our way towards yesterday's economy.

And, at Education

- ...parents must know more than specialists, devoted to the best for all kids
- ...money spent on the majority of children less important than that given to a privileged few
- ...and won't summarily disallow firearms in schools
because of the threat of "...potential grizzlies."

But trust this fuck.

He says to do so.

And how could he be wrong?

The electorate deemed it so.

With lies and barbarism and hate, he convoluted the system.

A four year moratorium on reason and morality and truth and sanity

If we make it that long, it will only be by luck

And trusting luck don't have much chance of working
There won't be anyone left to bury us when we're gone.
Find joy now, live for today.
For the first time in 27 years
There may not be a tomorrow.
